Tracy the Placement People has professional consultants who are skilled in screening applications, ensuring all referrals meet your specified criteria.

This allows you, the employer, to complete the employment process. Tracy's has the ability to provide national exposure for your vacancy, utilising both the internet and national vacancy data base. We can also provide funding to employers to assist with licenses, work apparel, wage subsidies, training for job seekers and work experience.

Our specialised placement service ensures that we source the most appropriate candidate for your vacancy. This may involve considerable research and we have the facilities and expertise to ensure quality assurance procedures will deliver the solution you require for your business. Tracy's has the necessary skills to listen and identify your specific requirements and then advise you on the best methods to attract that special employee. Tracy the Placement People will prepare an action plan and keep you informed throughout the entire process, conduct reference checks and tailor the recruitment process specifically to your requirements.

Tracy the Placement People ensure that we understand your business, your culture and your employment requirements. This ensures that not only do we match the skills criteria of the candidates but also ensure that we present candidates who will embrace your working environment and your vision.
